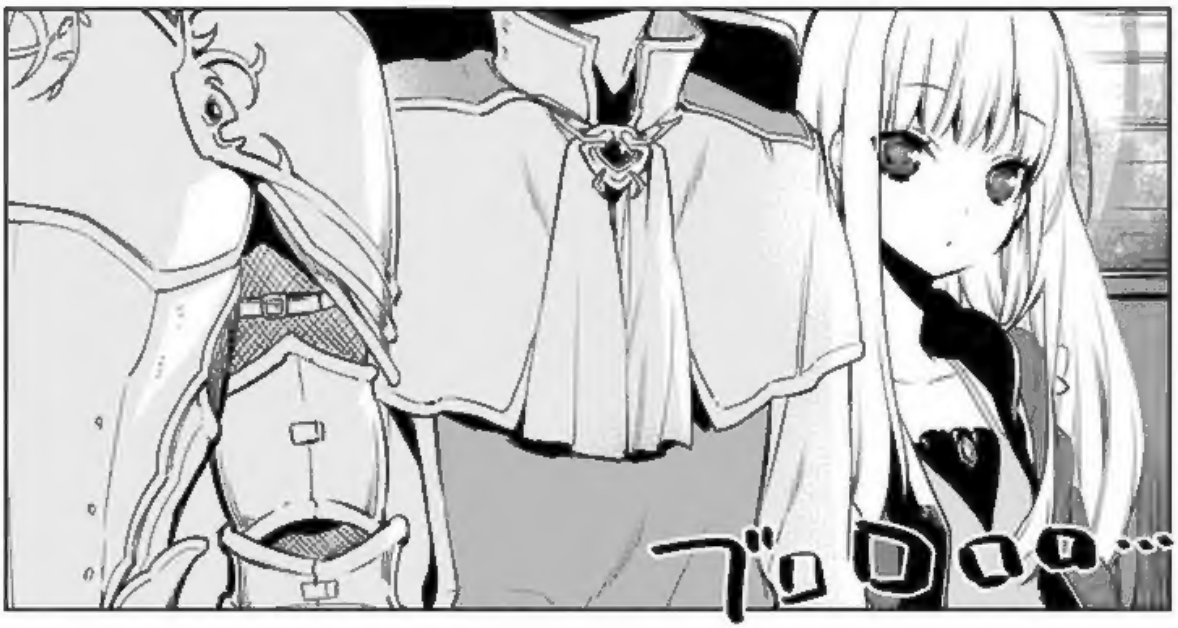
The car isn't the problem!
We will continue to improve on this so we appreciate your continued valuable feedback

I guess unlike with the long distance carraige, this won't be an elegant journey
I beg your pardon Miss Mira
We will need to improve on the vehicle suspension in the future
King Solomon's aide and magic researcher Joachim
Indeed it's hard on the butt when it shakes this much

But the suspension is only part of the problem the other part is the driver



ブロロロ…

Ah.. Incoming transmission
I guess this part is no different from when it was a game
Well I guess even in parties edgy people were unavoidable
What's with this edgy selection Solomon!!!
Currently 200 demons are as expected heading towards the flower garden
This is Arkite's opreator speaking
I see...
Upon arriving at the flower garden: , the Demons began fighting amongst themselves, and it was reported that the lesser demons that died were smiling wickedly
Exact same composition and place day after day? Is there a purpose behind it?
Yesterday there was an outbreak at the exact same place and composition that got exterminated
As expected?
Their purpose is to die in the flower garden?
Seems like a romantic end.. But perhaps...
As if their purpose was to die there...
ゴゴゴゴ…

Maybe they are trying to create an undead swamp
An undead swamp is an area where undead demons spawn rapidly
Undead swamp? So it's something that can be created...
Well this is just one theory. We don't actually have any proof of it happening
However the conditions for it have been met
First condition is there being a large number of corpses
Second condition is for a lot of life to be lost in that area
And lastly the land needs to contain some sort of power
All that we knew about this flower garden was that you can get special herbs from it, however with reports of the demons killing each other..
Indeed, so even if it's not for the sake of creating an undead swamp... We know that the lesser demons are dying there to cause some kind of change to the land..

It seems like we will arrive before the demons like this
Back to driving school with you!
ぐちゃみ
Garret !!!!!!

If the reported information is accurate, then the demons should emerge from the woods to the right
Understood. I will take the frontline, while Joachim supports from the back.
And

King Solomon instructed that miss Mira take care of the lesser demons but
Since I don't have a good grasp of your capabilities, I'm not really sure
Would it really be alright to leave it to you?
Indeed Even if the worst were to happen I'll be alright

Worst ? What's that supposed to mean
Anyway don't let any of them escape
That goes without saying. You should be careful not to mess up on your end

You are both here exactly because king Solomon acknowledges your skills
Now now there will probably be nothing to worry about with you two ぱん

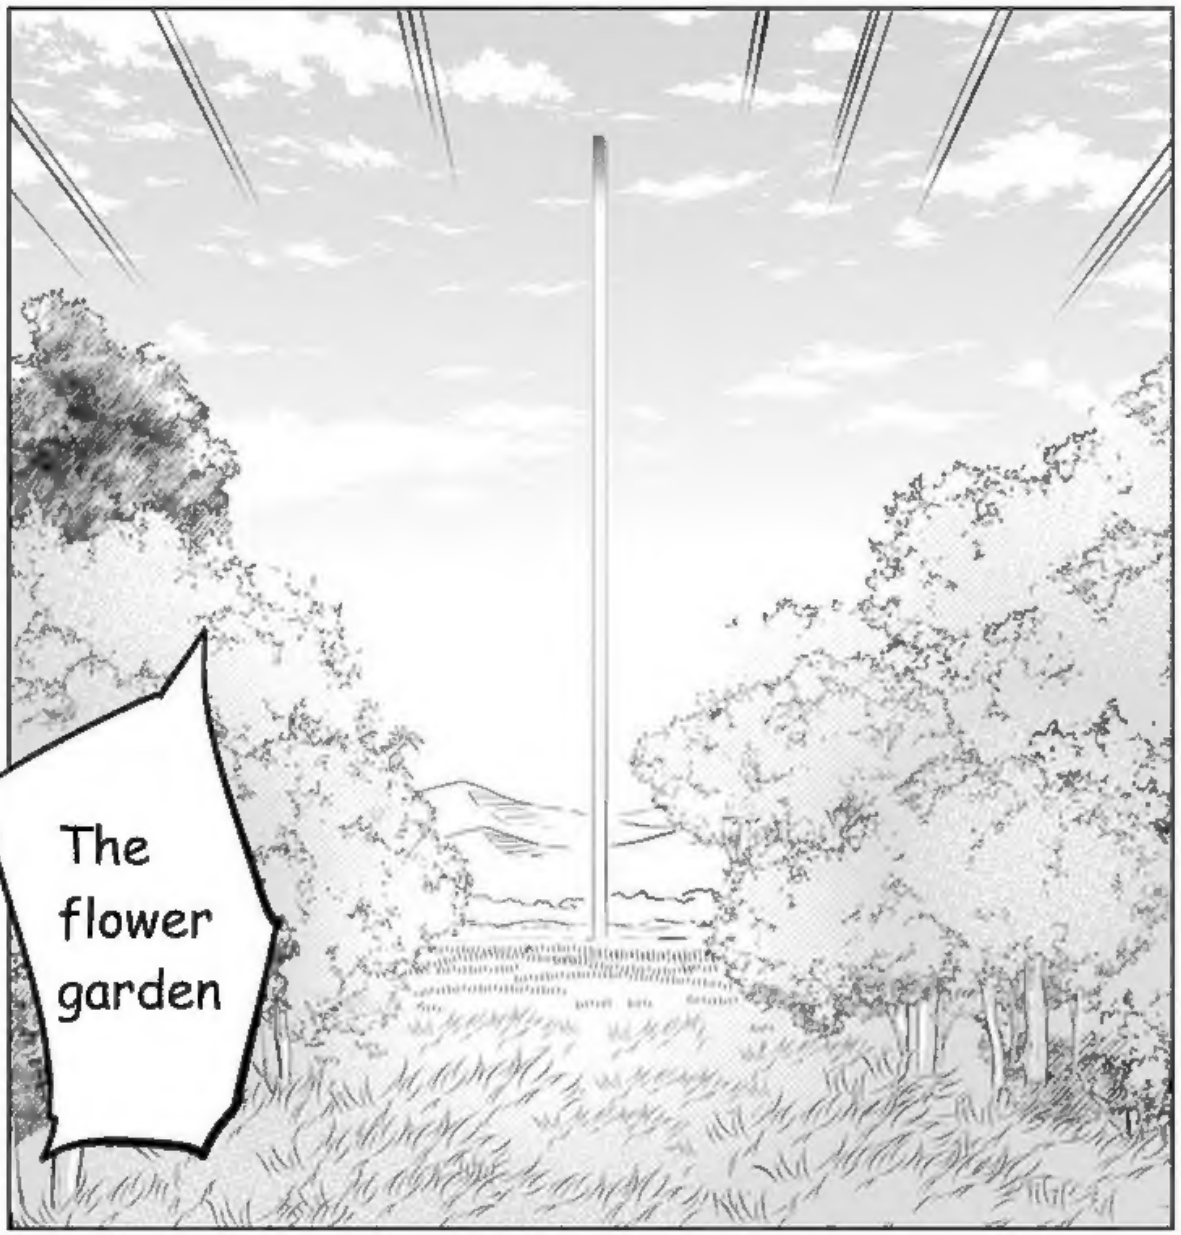
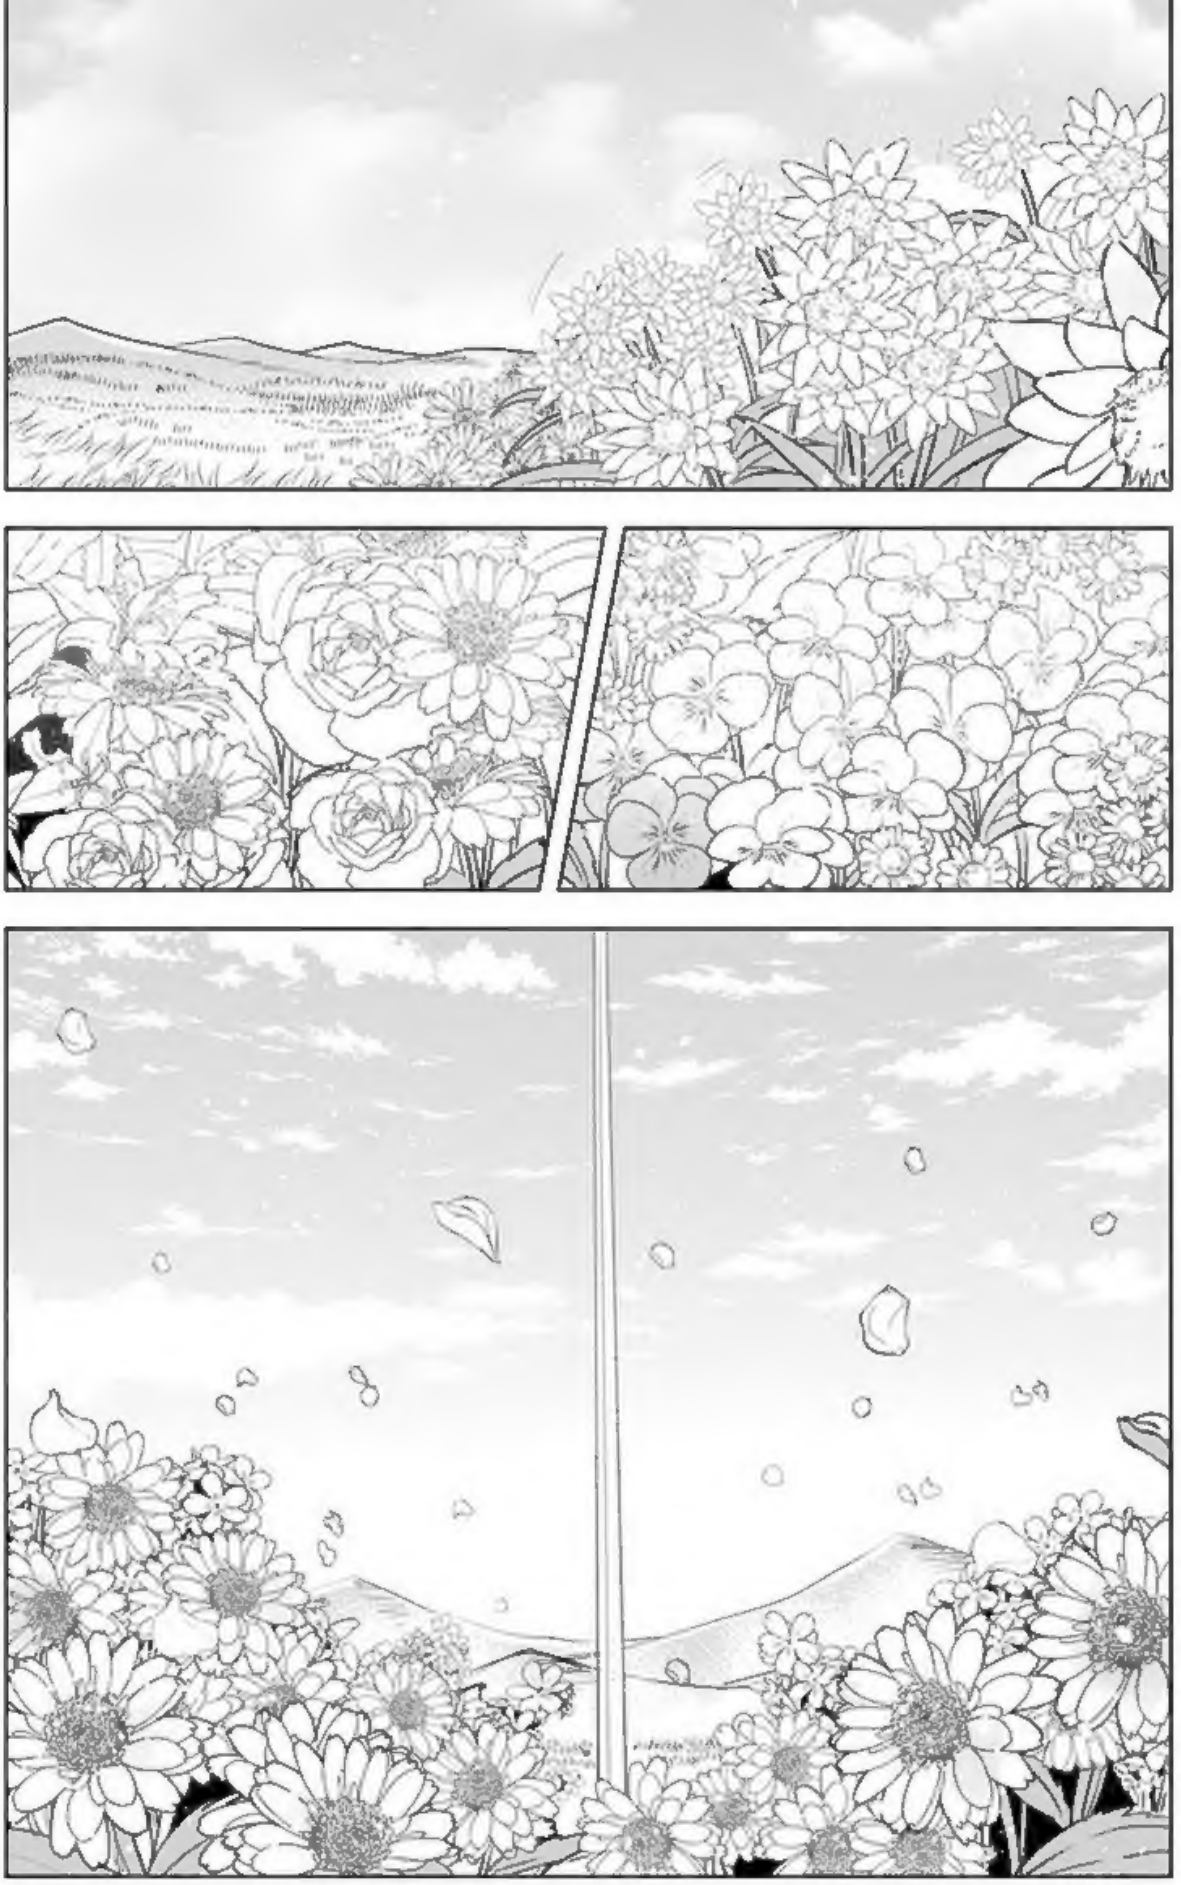
That is simply because he is an honest knight
When he decides to protect something as a knight, he will definitely protect it
Rather than simply being loud, Reinard is indeed obstinate and persistent, however
I'm not worried in the least
And I'm here as well. I might not be as strong as the elder substitues but i am fairly confident in my abilities, and will do my best not to fall behind

There it is



The flower garden



What is the meaning of this
For the flowers to be blooming so beautifully today as if nothing happened yesterday is strange
True.
Um. as I explained earlier, yesterday demons on the same scale as today were engaged in battle here hm??
Yesterday Miss Luminaria's unit took care of the demon extermination here
The area should be heavily burnt and tainted with blood but

Indeed it seems like this place holds some kind of power I have a feeling that they must not be allowed to fullfill their goal here at all cost

Now then lets do a little bit of investigation

From the transmission we got earlier they should be 5 km north-northeast of here
We have confirmed that this place is safe, but I wonder where the demons are right now

Though I don t have any definitive proof
So you feel that way as well
Doesn't hurt to be on the safe side

キュウウウ
ウウー…
ギュー
Sound of disordered footsteps
Long inhumanly breathing
Found them!
There is no need to await them at their destination after all
Then it would be best to await them at the plains near the forest
There is not doubt that it is a flock of demons
There is still a bit of a distance, but I have discovered a group of footsteps heading this way おおっ 今のは無形術か!?

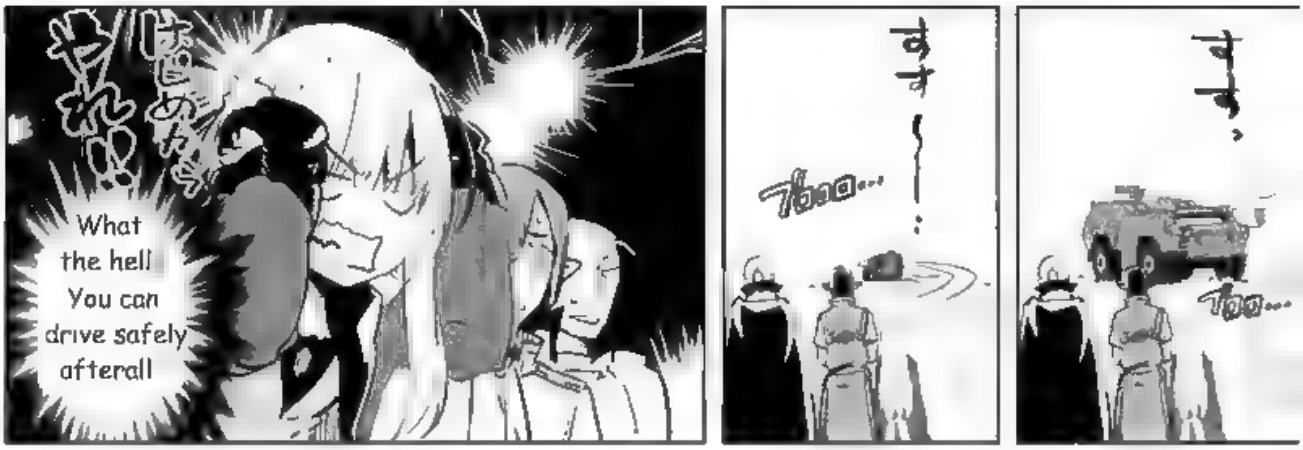
TL. She's asking him about the skill he just used to detect the demons

As planned I will move to the relief point If you need me just g ve the signal
I pray for your success



What the hell You can drive safely afterall

I ll leave defending to you
But this is where we get to show our capab lities
As expected their line of defense is thick

That Solomon.. I bet this is the kind of combination he wanted to show me!
Using combinations that are slightly different from when this was a game is quite interesting !
I see . He manipulates vacuum to cut the arms that carry weapons
Then he gathers the dismembered bodies and slaughters them using his sword

As expected it's a summoned type lesser demon
A dark crystal.. Must be the demon crystal
Now then time to do my part

ゴゴゴ
Now then I wonder what will appear
Best case would be it summon ng another one to deal with.. Worst case it will be summoning a large type demon
- Demon crystal - random summon -

It s troublsome regardless of what I choose to do
However f I defeat it before it can summon, Then it will become vengful and curse the crystal, so it guarantees a large demon summon

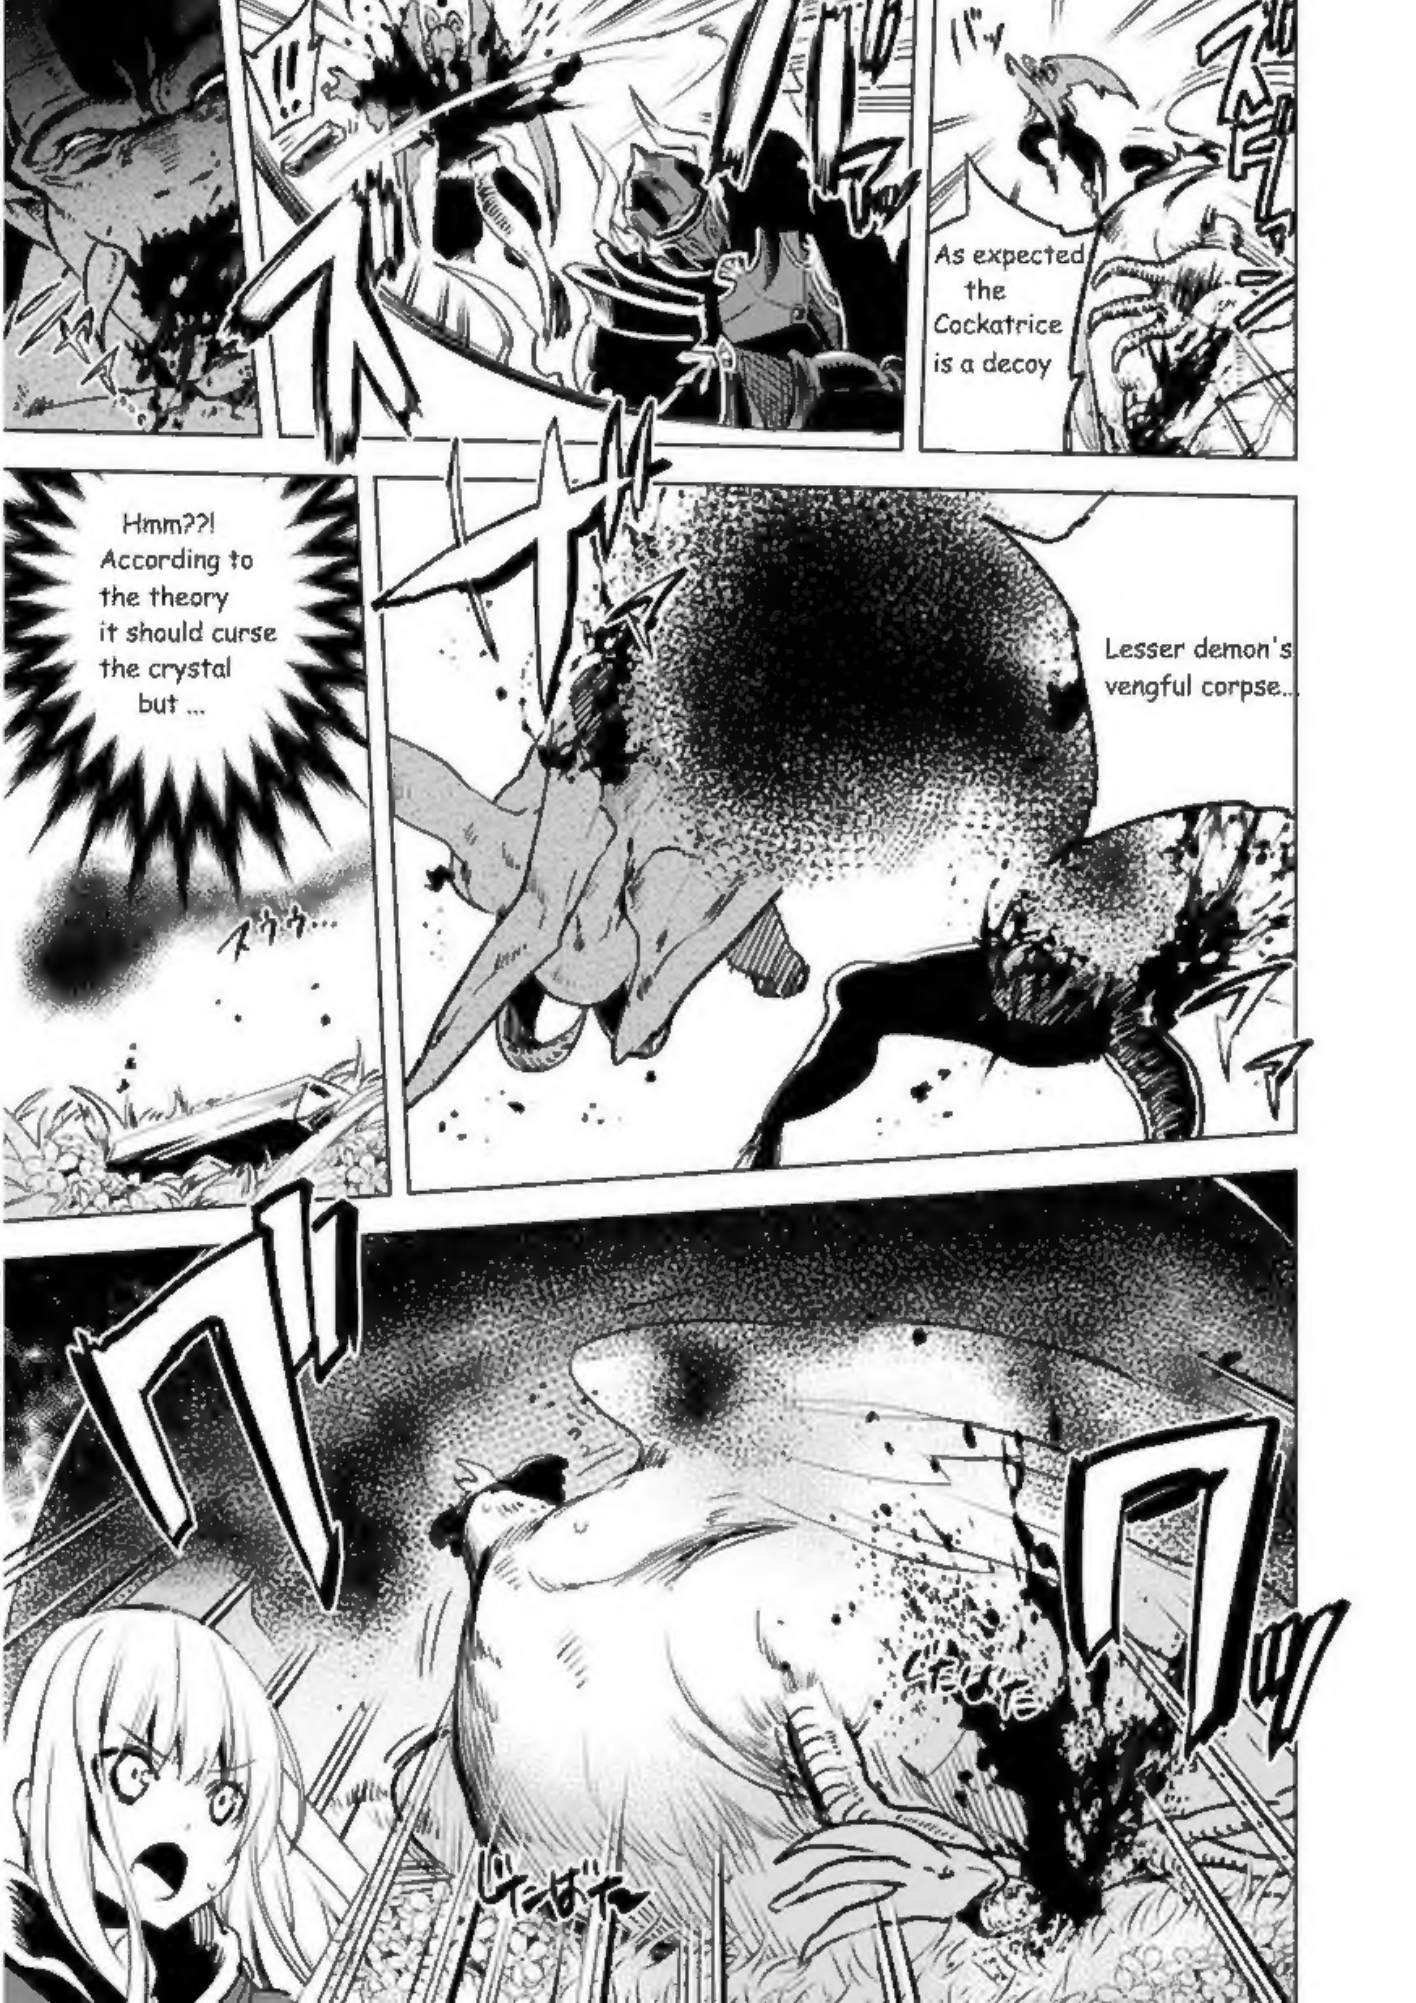
ゴゴゴ
Worst case it is...

Look carefully Lenard
That is too strong, I have to assist Her, Joachim
Cockatrice?

We re incharge of the frontline Isn't that right ?
She already told you that it would be alr ght even if the worst were to happen
That's how it should be. Faithful to mission ,honest and ready to react to any sudden changes That is what makes you, you.
Indeed!

キャアキャア
The Cockatrice's petrification requires both eyes to activate
And she took care of that instantly?!!!
This must be the power that king Solomon discerned
She's more capable than I imagined
ドドドド
Wait!!
Wh.....?
ギィエエエエエッ

How far are you planning to go? We already passed the flower garden a while ago
Caught!



As expected the Cockatrice is a decoy
Hmm??! According to the theory it should curse the crystal but ...
Lesser demon's vengful corpse...
